Overview

Introduction

The intent of these regulations is to provide general rules, guidelines, and specific limitations for agencies when reimbursing personnel for relocating their household to accommodate the Commonwealth. The regulations are to assist agencies in moving and relocating employees and their families as expeditiously as possible and at a fair and reasonable cost to the Commonwealth.

Volume No. 1 - Policies & Procedures	TOPIC NO.	20345
Function No. 20000—General Accounting	TOPIC	MOVING AND RELOCATION
Section No. 20300—Cash Disbursements Accounting	DATE	March 2008

Policy

Agency Election

If an agency elects to provide moving and relocation reimbursement, it must do so within the maximum limitations and restrictions provided herein.

No agency is required by these regulations to provide such reimbursement for moving and relocation expenses, and may restrict the amount provided to a lesser sum than the maximum allowed, either in total or by category.

Due to financial and fiscal constraints and other agency personnel considerations, each agency is authorized to supplement these regulations provided that the Reimbursement Limitations (shown below) are not exceeded, and such supplements do not constitute deviation from provisions of the reimbursement guidelines established by the Comptroller pursuant to Section 2.2-1822 of the Code of Virginia.

IRS Regulation Compliance

It is the agency's responsibility to comply with Internal Revenue Service (IRS) regulations. All moving and relocation reimbursements, with the exceptions of moving household goods and personal affects, temporary in-transit storage and traveling to the new place of residence, must be included in the employee's gross income on the Federal W-2 form. (Refer to CAPP Topic No. 50515, Special Payments, for answers to questions concerning reimbursement through payroll.)

Adherence to IRS moving and relocation regulations for income reporting and tax deduction and reporting applies to all agencies, even when non-State (local) funds are used. (See IRS Reporting below.)

Regulation Application

These regulations apply to all agencies, institutions, positions, and employees of the Commonwealth, except employees who do not qualify for moving and relocation reimbursement, such as those paid on an hourly or daily basis and others specifically exempt by Order of the Governor or by Acts of the General Assembly. In instances where an exemption exists, documentation of this exemption should accompany the request for reimbursement.

Policy, Continued

Test of Public Review Discretion is required at all times when incurring and reporting expenditures of public funds. State employees are always expected to exercise prudent judgment and expenditures must be able to sustain the test of public review. Acknowledging the need to administer to individual situations while applying these regulations in an equitable and competitive manner, agency management must ensure that all reimbursements are thoroughly documented and reviewed in every case before being approved for payment.

Reimbursement Basis Only Moving and relocation expenses can be paid on a reimbursement basis only.

All reimbursements, except common carrier or temporary storage, must be processed through the State payroll system, CIPPS.

Reimbursements through other processes, such as the petty cash reimbursement process, are not allowed.

Eligibility

Agency Discretion

The eligibility of any employee for reimbursement of moving and relocation expenses involves agency discretion.

Each agency has the authority to approve or disapprove expense reimbursements resulting from valid relocations subject to the regulations set forth herein.

The agency is responsible for notifying employees of any limitation of scope or agency policy which may affect the eligibility for reimbursement.

Employee

Eligible employees must be salaried employees of a State agency in regular, full-time positions to be eligible for moving and relocation reimbursement. Employees in a quasi-full time position (32-39.9 hours per week) are not eligible for moving and relocation reimbursement.

Relocation

Conditions To Be Satisfied To be eligible for reimbursement, the employee's relocation must meet all three of the following conditions:

No.	Condition	Description
1	Relocation at Employer's Request	The relocation must be at the request of the employing agency and for the good of the Commonwealth as determined by the Agency Head. Expenses will not be reimbursed when the relocation is at the request of, or for the convenience of the employee.
2	Relocation Distance	The distance between the employee's new work location and former residence must be at least fifty (50) miles greater than the distance between the employee's old work location and the former residence. That is, the employee's commuting distance must have increased by at least fifty (50) miles one way. For example, if the original commuting distance from the former residence to the old work site was 10 miles, the new work site must be at least 60 miles (10 miles original commuting distance plus the 50-mile increase) from the former residence. Exceptions may be considered by the State Comptroller for relocations which require the employee to establish a new residence in a specific geographical location when commuting distance is not increased by 50 miles. See Reimbursement Processing Policy below for exception requests.

Reimbursement Limitations

Expenses Incurred and Supported

Any expenditure to be reimbursed must be reasonable, necessary, incurred after the employee executes an employment tenure agreement (see Employment Tenure Agreement below) and reported to the Agency head or designee within twelve (12) months of the date the employee starts work at the new location.

Reimbursement Dollar Limit

The total dollar limit for reimbursement for all expenses other than for transportation and storage of household goods is $11,000.

A maximum limit is not placed on expense reimbursement or costs related to use of a common carrier for transportation and storage. However, these expenses must be reasonable and necessary.

This includes all reimbursements, i.e., actual reimbursements received by the employee and payments to third parties on behalf of the employee, including necessary employer payroll taxes paid related to these reimbursements.

Example

If total actual allowable moving costs totaled $12,000, the employee will be reimbursed $10,158.50 less the employee withholdings. Here is how this figure is derived:

This reimbursable amount is the $11,000 maximum minus the employer FICA tax. The current rate is 7.65% which calculates to $841.50 (7.65 % of $11,000). The amount remaining for direct reimbursement to the employee is $10,158.50 less the employee withholdings for Federal and State income taxes and employee FICA.

Reimbursement Limitations, Continued

Travel

Travel related to moving and relocation is eligible for reimbursement according to CAPP Topic 20335, State Travel Regulations and is limited to:

- Trips for actual house hunting (house hunting must occur prior to first day of work), including automobile rental (see Househunting Expenses);
- The initial trip (employee's move to new residence), after employment to the new duty station; and,
- The trip to bring the family to the new residence (temporary or permanent).

Travel reimbursement does not include automobile rental except for house hunting purposes.

Mileage

Reimbursement for mileage may not exceed the mileage rate established in the current Appropriation Act in effect at the time of travel. All mileage reimbursements over the amount allowed by IRS as a deduction are taxable. (See self-moving mileage in Expenses for Relocating Household Goods and Personal Effects for example.)

Employee's Spouse Is State Employee

If the employee's spouse is a State employee and otherwise eligible for moving and relocation expenses, reimbursement of any such expenses will be paid to only one employee within the limits prescribed and only to move the primary household to the new location.

Agency Funding

Disbursements for reimbursable moving and relocation expenses and related taxes, if any, must be funded from monies within the employing agency's budget.

Pre-Employment Expenses

Expenditures for travel, testing, interviewing, and related activities incurred by or for a prospective employee before the applicant has accepted the employment offer are termed pre-employment expenses and are not considered moving and relocation expenses.

Travel expenses of prospective employees, incidental to an employment interview, may be reimbursed by an agency. Such pre-employment expenses will be reimbursed separately in accordance with CAPP Topic No. 20335, State Travel Regulations in effect at the time such expenses are incurred.

House-Hunting Expenses

House-Hunting Expenses House hunting expenses include the following for employee and spouse while traveling:

- Cost of transportation (including automobile rental)
- Meals
- Lodging

Travel expenses for house-hunting purposes are eligible for reimbursement in accordance with CAPP Topic No. 20335, State Travel Regulations.

The number of reimbursable trips for house hunting purposes is limited to three (3) trips for the employee and three (3) trips for the spouse.

The maximum number of reimbursable lodging nights is fifteen (15). A night of combined lodging for both the employee and spouse counts as one night.

Temporary Quarters

Temporary Quarters

Reimbursement for reasonable lodging or rent may be claimed for a period of ninety (90) days from the first day of work at the new location.

Reasonable residential parking fees will be reimbursed during the 90 days of temporary quarters.

Expenses for meals may be claimed for the first thirty (30) days of residence in temporary quarters.

All such expenses must be reasonable, necessary, and in accordance with CAPP Topic No. 20335, State Travel Regulations.

Home Sale Expenses

Home Sale Actual expenses of real estate commissions on the sale of the former principal residence and those customary closing and legal costs incurred in the sale of that residence, as listed below, are reimbursable.

A copy of the Closing Statement, signed by either the closing attorney, the realtor, or the seller, must be included as supportive documentation when requesting reimbursement.

Home Sale Expenses Reimbursable The following expenses related to the sale of the principal residence due to moving and relocation are reimbursable:

- Actual expense of real estate commission;
- Attorney fees;
- Escrow fees;
- State or local transfer taxes; and,
- Pest inspections.

Home Sale Expenses NOT Reimbursable The following expenses are not reimbursable:

- Sales commissions and similar expenses if the employee acts as a selling agent (closing and legal costs are allowed);
- Advertising and "Fix-up" costs;
- Loss sustained on sale of residence;
- Real estate and capital gains taxes;
- Payment and repayment of interest;
- Points or loan payment charges that are negotiable;
- "Carrying" costs (maintenance fees, utilities, principal, etc.);
- Mortgage penalties; and,
- Buyer's closing costs, including Virginia fees.

Cancellation of Lease The settlement of a lease in the former residence is reimbursable if the settlement is due to moving and relocation.

Expenses for Relocating Household Goods and Personal Effects

Common Carrier

The actual costs paid for common carrier transportation of the employee's household goods and personal effects from the former principal residence to the residence at the new work location are reimbursable.

If the employee uses common carrier transportation, the amount of actual costs is allowed in addition to the $11,000 limitation (minus employer FICA tax) (See Reimbursement Limitations).

The employee is responsible for consulting with the employing agency's procurement department to determine the required number of bids in accordance with current Virginia Public Procurement regulations.

Copies of the required bids should be provided to the agency prior to a formal commitment to utilize the common carrier. The bid(s) should be attached to the Employee Moving and Relocation Expense Information form when the invoice is submitted for payment.

When at all possible, the employee should utilize a common carrier based in Virginia. When outside of the Commonwealth of Virginia, employees should contact Virginia common carriers to inquire if they are able to match bids submitted by out-of-state firms.

Self-Moving If the employee chooses to move himself/herself, the amount of the actual costs incurred will be included in the $11,000 limitation (minus employer FICA tax) (See Reimbursement Limitation).

- MOVING VEHICLE RENTAL

Moving van, truck, trailer, hand truck, or other appropriate moving equipment, vehicles, and supplies are reimbursable with rental company receipt. Purchase of such a vehicle or equipment is not reimbursable. The purchase of moving supplies, such as packing paper, boxes or cartons, may be reimbursed with appropriate receipts. The amount of such purchases must not exceed $200. Gas used by a rental truck during the move is reimbursable with proper receipts.

- LABOR USED DURING THE MOVE

Reimbursement is limited to a reasonable hourly wage with the maximum total being $250. Labor provided by the employee or immediate family member(s) is not reimbursable. A receipt from the individual employed, with amount paid and a signature, must be attached to the reimbursement request.

- MILEAGE

If a personally-owned or borrowed moving vehicle is used in the move, reimbursement will be allowed at the mileage rate specified in the current Appropriation Act, provided that the number of miles is recorded on the voucher.

All mileage reimbursements over the amount allowed by IRS as a deduction are taxable. Example: For Calendar Year 2007, the IRS per mile rate for mileage reimbursement for travel is 48.5 cents and the allowable moving deduction per mile is 20 cents; therefore, 22.5 cents per mile would be reported as taxable income.

Reimbursement will not be allowed to cover the "rental value" of the personally-owned vehicle.

A car or truck with a trailer in tow will also be reimbursed at the mileage rate specified in the current Appropriation Act.

- TOLLS

Tolls paid during the move are reimbursable provided the name of the facility (road, bridge, and tunnel) is provided. A receipt is required for reimbursement where the individual claim is greater than $10.

Storage Expense

The expense for a maximum of thirty (30) days temporary (in-transit) storage of household goods is reimbursable if the employee cannot move directly into the new residence.

This amount is not included in the $11,000 limitation (minus Employer FICA tax) (see Reimbursement Limitations)

Expenses for New Home Purchase

Introduction Expenses related to the purchase of a replacement home, which is the primary residence, are reimbursable for the specific items listed below and are subject to the maximum limitation for all moving and relocation expenses of $11,000 (minus employer FICA tax).

To qualify for this reimbursement, the relocated employee must have owned a primary residence at his prior location, which due to relocation resulted in disposal of the residence.

This reimbursement is not allowed for the purchase of a second residence, investment property, business property, or resort/vacation property at the new work site.

Reimbursable Expenses & Documentation

The following expenses related to a home purchase are reimbursable:

- VA funding fee
- Loan origination fee, or lease processing fee
- Mortgage survey
- Appraisal fee
- Credit report
- Title search
- Recording fee
- Title insurance
- Attorney fee
- Home inspection (Limit 1)
- Notary fees

All of these expenses must be related to the purchase of the primary residence. Documentation identifying these expenses is required.

Closing Within 12 Months For expenses related to a home purchase to be considered for reimbursement, the replacement (closing) of the prior primary residence must be accomplished within twelve (12) months after the official starting date of employment.

Extenuating circumstances that result in the twelve (12) month period expiring prior to the purchase (closing) of a replacement home may be approved by the Agency head or designee for up to an additional 12 months. Extension requests after this period may be presented to the State Comptroller for consideration.

Non-Reimbursable Expenses Costs related to the purchase and replacement of a primary residence not specifically listed above are not reimbursable.

Examples of some expenses that are not reimbursable follow:

- Utility deposits and/or connection fees
- Real estate taxes, prepaid or otherwise
- Capital gains taxes
- Mortgage loan differential
- Realtor fees related to purchasing
- Remodeling or decoration expenses
- Points, discount fees, or loan payment charges
- Repair and maintenance costs
- Homeowner insurance
- Homeowner warranty fees
- Private mortgage insurance
- Permit fees such as building, sewer, and zoning
- Deposit for rent

Costs related to moving and relocation not specifically allowed in these regulations are not reimbursable. The following expense items are examples of expenses that shall not be considered as valid moving and relocation expenses and will not be reimbursable:

- Insurance in excess of bulk rate coverage provided by the Common Carrier;
- Cost to transport recreation vehicles such as yachts;
- Laundry or dry cleaning while in temporary quarters; and,
- Cost to move a pet.

Employment Tenure Agreement

Introduction To be compensated for moving and relocation expenses—except where the relocation resulted from a transfer required by the agency—the employee must execute an employment tenure agreement with the employing agency before any such expenses are incurred.

Tenure Agreement's Stipulation The agreement must stipulate that the employee must remain employed on a regular, full-time basis in State service for at least one year, commencing upon the date when the employee starts work at the new location

Early Employee Termination The following table illustrates reimbursable situations when early-employee termination occurs.

If the . . .	Then the . . .
Employee terminates State employment before the obligated one year of service	Employee refunds to the Commonwealth a pro-rated amount of the gross amount of moving and relocation reimbursements. Employment Tenure Agreement, Continued

Agreement for Each Move

The employee must sign a separate employment tenure agreement for each move for which the employee is eligible for moving and relocation expense reimbursement.

If the employee is transferred to another work location in the State service before the period covered by the tenure agreement has elapsed, a new tenure agreement for twelve (12) months must be entered into.

All tenure agreements terminate twelve (12) months after the related employment date. Therefore, an employee does not have to complete a twelve (12) month tenure agreement before a second agreement begins.

Exceptions

Exceptions involving the early cancellation of an existing tenure agreement upon executing a new tenure agreement will be at the option of the agency or agencies involved.

Agreement Sample Form

A sample Employment Tenure Agreement form follows below.

TENURE AGREEMENT

This is an agreement entered on _____ for the payment of employee moving and relocation expenses of _____ who has accepted employment with the _____.

1. In order to assist the Employee in meeting the extraordinary expenses of moving and relocation and as a further inducement to accept employment, the Department agrees to reimburse the Employee for moving and relocation expenses in accordance with the Commonwealth of Virginia Moving and Relocation Regulations issued by the Office of the Comptroller in effect on the date of this agreement.
2. In consideration of the Department's offer to reimburse moving and relocation expenses, the Employee agrees to remain in the employ of the Department for period of twelve (12) months beginning _____.
3. The Employee further agrees that in the event the Employee does not remain in the employ of the Department as a full-time employee for the full twelve-month period, the Employee will repay to the Department a pro-rated amount of the gross reimbursement for moving and relocation expenses, including actual money plus related payroll taxes withheld by the Department, whether received directly by the Employee or paid to third parties on the Employee's behalf. The amount to be repaid shall be prorated on a monthly basis such that for each full month during which the Employee remained in the employ of the Department, the amount to be repaid shall be reduced by one-twelfth (1/12) of the gross reimbursement. The Department, in its sole discretion and with the recommendation of the Agency Head, may waive repayment if the Employee is separated for reasons beyond the Employee's control, but termination for standards of conduct violations shall not be deemed to be a reason beyond the Employee's control. Repayment will not be required if termination at the election of the agency due to unsatisfactory job performance or as a result of a layoff.

In witness to this agreement, the parties execute their acceptance of its terms by affixing their signatures below.

Reimbursement Processing Policy

Special Payment Process

Reimbursement to an employee for moving and relocation expenses may not be made on an Accounting Voucher, travel voucher, or petty cash voucher. Instead, reimbursements made directly to the employee must be made through the state's payroll's special payment process. Procedures for this process are located in CAPP Topic No. 50515, Special Payments.

Lodging, Meals, & Mileage

Reimbursement for lodging, meals, and mileage must be actual, reasonable, necessary, and within the guidelines of CAPP Topic No. 20335, State Travel Regulations, where applicable.

Supporting documentation such as of receipts and detailed listings of charges are required in accordance with CAPP Topic No. 20335, State Travel Regulations, and must be attached to the special payroll documents maintained at the agency.

As an aid to documentation, a travel voucher must be used to itemize expenses and then be attached to the payroll submission as supporting documentation. This travel voucher may not be submitted as a voucher for payment.

Reimbursement Forms

A copy of the DA-02-182, *Moving and Relocation Expense Summary, must be properly completed and attached, along with required receipts and detailed back-up, to the back of each special payroll being submitted. (See form sample below.)

Third-party payments on the DA-20-250, *Accounting Voucher, or using the Small Purchases Charge Card may only be made to common carriers for transportation of the employee's household goods and personal effects from the former residence to the residence at the new work location or for temporary storage of employee's household goods up to thirty (30) days if an employee cannot move into his new residence.

No other third-party payments can be made for moving and relocation expenses. A copy of the DA-02-182, *Moving and Relocation Expense Summary, must be properly completed and attached, along with required invoices, to the back of each submitted voucher. An adjustment to the employee's year-to-date gross pay must be made for each third-party reimbursement. Follow your agency's normal payroll adjustment procedures.

Approvals The following table indicates who is responsible for reimbursement approvals for moving and relocation expenses that must be approved in writing.

Expenses prepared by . . .	Are approved by . . .
Employee	Agency Head
Community College President	Community College Chancellor
College or University President	Secretary of Education
Gubernatorial Appointees	Appropriate Governor's Secretary
Governor's Secretary	Governor or his/her designee

Exceptions The Agency Head or designee may grant a one-time extension of a time limitation up to 12 months to each employee for claiming moving and relocation expenses.

The State Comptroller may approve exceptions regarding extensions for filing for reimbursements for distance requirements and additional extensions to time limitations and any moving and relocation policy contained herein, except those related to maximum dollar amount.

Exceptions for exceeding the maximum dollar limitation require the approval of the appropriate Governor's Secretary.

Employee Responsibilities

• Documentation & Reasonableness

Each employee eligible for moving and relocation expense reimbursement is responsible for obtaining original receipts and other documents that are necessary to support all claims for reimbursement.

All expenses submitted for reimbursement must be actual, reasonable, necessary, and within the guidelines of these regulations.

• Timeframe

Each designated category of reimbursement expenses should be itemized and submitted for payment within 30 days after the last expenditure is made or the last invoice is received for expenses in a given category. All claims for payment should be submitted within 30 days after the employee moves into the new permanent residence, but in no case later than 12 months after beginning employment at the new location, unless an extension is granted.

- Breach of Tenure Agreement

If the employee does not fulfill the twelve-month employment term specified by the tenure agreement, the total gross amount of reimbursements received by the employee and paid to third parties on behalf of the employee, plus all taxes deducted that relate to those reimbursements must be refunded on a pro-rated basis as stipulated in the Tenure Agreement.

Under these circumstances, the employee's gross income for tax purposes will be adjusted by the agency for the total amount refunded to the agency.

Agency Responsibilities

- Reimbursement Processing

The hiring agency reviews, approves, and properly files all vouchers and invoices claiming reimbursement or payment of moving and relocation expenses subject to these regulations and pursuant to the Code of Virginia, Sections 2.2-815 and 2.2-2824.

Travel vouchers can not be used for moving and relocation expense reimbursements, although they are required as a method of documenting travel related expenses.

- Employee Reimbursement Eligibility

Agency management must be able to substantiate the reimbursement eligibility of a new employee as a condition of employment and must retain copies of binding employment tenure and other agreements for all eligible employees.

If an employee does not satisfy the terms of the tenure agreement, the agency must collect a pro-rated amount the gross amount of all moving and relocation reimbursements made to that employee unless proper approval has been granted to prorate or waive repayment. This includes all reimbursement paid to the employee and third parties on behalf of the employee plus all taxes deducted that relate to those reimbursements. The employee's gross income must then be adjusted to reflect the total amount received by the agency.

- Direct Payments To Third Parties

Payments to common carriers (commercial moving companies) for actual carrier transportation and/or up to thirty (30) days' storage can be made through an Accounting Voucher or using the Small Purchases Charge Card by the agency.

No other third-party payments may be made for moving and relocation expenses. All other payments must be made directly through the payroll process.

- Tax Withholding & Reporting

Each agency must take steps necessary to account for moving and relocation expense reimbursements and payments to meet both employer withholding and employee reporting of gross income and applicable payroll taxes as defined by the Internal Revenue Service.

IRS Reporting

Introduction Applicable Federal and State laws require certain reimbursements to relocated employees to be included in the employee's gross income, and certain relocation expenses to be excluded.

Expenses which constitute qualified moving expense reimbursements under Federal guidelines should not be considered as taxable income.

Expenses which are not qualified are taxable and should be included in the employee's W-2 tax withholding statement.

Each employee is ultimately responsible for the proper reporting and tax treatment of any reimbursements to the IRS for each tax year.

Qualified Moving Expenses

The following information provides general guidance on the possible tax treatment of the reimbursements/payments received as a result of relocation. It is recommended that the employee consult a tax advisor or devote personal time to a detailed review of tax regulations to determine the effect upon personal income tax liability. Additionally, IRS publication 521, Moving Expenses, is available upon request from the IRS.

Qualified moving expenses are defined as the reasonable costs of

- (1) moving household goods and personal effects from the former residence to the new residence (this includes common carrier and in-transit storage expenses (30 day maximum)), and
- (2) travel—including lodging during the period of travel—from the former residence to the new place of residence.

Qualified moving expenses do not include any expenses for meals.

Non-Qualified Moving Expenses

The following cost do not constitute qualified moving expenses under Federal guidelines:

- Pre-move house hunting trips
- Temporary living expenses in the general location of the new job and,
- Selling or settling an un-expired lease on the former residence or the cost of buying a new residence.

IRS Reporting, Continued

Qualified moving expenses are excludable from gross income and wages for income and employment tax purposes to the extent paid for by the agency or institution. The reimbursement of expenses which do not constitute qualified moving expenses reimbursements under the IRS guidelines must be added to the employee's income as taxable income with the appropriate Federal and State income taxes withheld.

Internal Control

Internal Control

Appointed authorities may adopt rules, policies, and procedures that are not in conflict with these regulations, as deemed necessary to properly administer these regulations with in their agencies.

Agency rules, policies, and procedures should be submitted to the State Comptroller for review before becoming effective to ensure consistency with these regulations.

Procedures to include moving and relocation reimbursements and related taxes, if any, for the employee's payroll records can be found in CAPP Manual Topic No. 50515, Special Payments.

Records Retention

Time Period

Copies of expenditure documents are to be maintained on file in each agency for three years. Agencies and institutions participating in Decentralization of Financial Records must maintain original expenditure documents for a period of 3 years. See CAPP Manual Topic No. 50515, Special Payments, for payroll-related records retention.

TENURE AGREEMENT

This is an agreement entered on _____ for the payment of employee moving and relocation expenses of _____ who has accepted employment with the _____.

1. In order to assist the Employee in meeting the extraordinary expenses of moving and relocation and as a further inducement to accept employment, the Department agrees to reimburse the Employee for moving and relocation expenses in accordance with the Commonwealth of Virginia Moving and Relocation Regulations issued by the Office of the Comptroller in effect on the date of this agreement.
2. In consideration of the Department's offer to reimburse moving and relocation expenses, the Employee agrees to remain in the employ of the Department for period of twelve (12) months beginning _____.
3. The Employee further agrees that in the event the Employee does not remain in the employ of the Department as a full-time employee for the full twelve-month period, the Employee will repay to the Department a pro-rated amount of the gross reimbursement for moving and relocation expenses, including actual money plus related payroll taxes withheld by the Department, whether received directly by the Employee or paid to third parties on the Employee's behalf. The amount to be repaid shall be prorated on a monthly basis such that for each full month during which the Employee remained in the employ of the Department, the amount to be repaid shall be reduced by one-twelfth (1/12) of the gross reimbursement. The Department, in its sole discretion and with the recommendation of the Agency Head, may waive repayment if the Employee is separated for reasons beyond the Employee's control, but termination for standards of conduct violations shall not be deemed to be a reason beyond the Employee's control. Repayment will not be required if termination at the election of the agency due to unsatisfactory job performance or as a result of a layoff.

In witness to this agreement, the parties execute their acceptance of its terms by affixing their signatures below.
